I guess the Holidays are coming ready or not. As of right now I am a NOT. I plan to cook a big turkey for my family. Let's see how that turns out. Now that I cook for two it is hard to cook for eight. I have decided to try and not worry about it. I hope your Thanksgiving was fun and with family, friends or both.

Are you ready for the Christmas party at Cowtown? It is on December 11th at 12 noon. Don't bring any food because it is being furnished. All you need to bring is 1 wrapped $10.00 gift for each person coming with you if they are playing our gift exchange. We do need you to RSVP so we know how many to plan for. Please call or text Linda Wicker (952)345-2008) by December 4th as she is keeping the list. Call her as soon as you know if you plan to attend. Remember that if you bring someone they will need their vaccination card and ID. Hope to see you all at Cowtown.

We were so happy to have everyone continue to have fun after graduation. We had four squares most of the time. Now that we are getting into the busy time of the year we will most likely have 3 squares. They all say they are having a great time so that is what counts.

Let your friends know about the class starting in January. Don't forget to mark your calendar for the dance on December 19. It is from 2:00 pm-4:30 pm and is class level.

Okay hit the ground running and get ready for the most wonderful Holidays.

Hello everyone,

Hope everyone enjoyed the Thanksgiving holiday. I sure did. Time off from work is always enjoyed. From what I'm hearing, people are ready to celebrate this year and excited to get back into gathering together. With the price of everything going up the way it is, I'm not actually sure how much cheer is going to go around. It sounds like a hope. We should always keep that alive and do the best we can.

No cards went out this past month so that's a good thing. So I'm hoping all is well and I didn't miss an opportunity to send a note of encouragement. If you know of someone who needs a pick me up from us please let me know.

Sorry I cannot be amongst you at this time to personally say I hope for the best for you and your family during the upcoming holiday season.

Be blessed.
